i10 p1 pneu22

Scale How,
Ambleside.

June 7th 1921

Dear Mr. Lee

Secret!

Afternoon we want to have you & come Levant to see Michael. We should have had an evening for him - but for the emergencies of packing & last minute papers.

I shall be the only person comparatively at leisure as I don't pack or visit trains!

i10p2 pneu22

The Students will have to pass
Sunday as many of them
require two days to get down -
Their luggage goes in advance.
i.e. on Thursday morning
so they will not be able to pass us a minute.
But for me it will be delightful - very - to see you.
I suppose you travel by night & get here on the Wed.
morning. We shall be able to have our meals as usual
no doubt - It's only the people

110 p 3 pneu 32

Scale How,
Ambleside.

she will be breathless
busy, but you will sit in myroom & talk & talk - & perhaps you will be up to an afternoon drive. & well put Jessy for one tea - which finished her needs clean -
has he? & will let the world
wag.

Lizzie sending you my answers to Lily Baker-Powell.
I hope she (& you) won't be disappointed - but we

i10 p4 pneu32

Lewis as you seem to be very careful.

We are having the most glorious weather & I am keeping well.

I am glad "Ramsay" is going to Bradford. I asked Burns to Lewis's meeting & wh. all the teachers should be invited & now it has come. Lois & Lewis she will do it well.